The public is welcome to participate electronically, including by telephonic conferencing or video conferencing, in a manner in which both the general public and the members of the public body may participate by electronic means. To assist with the new platform for Board meetings, we ask those participating to please follow the following best practices:

1. Turn off cellular/mobile devices and minimize distractions.
2. Only SKCFA hosts/co-hosts will have the ability to mute and unmute at all times, in order to more efficiently conduct the meeting and avoid background noise.
3. As you participate in the meeting, your microphone will be placed on "mute". Please see Public Comment Guidelines below for additional information.

Public Comment Guidelines

During "Public Comment" participants will have the opportunity to address the Board at the beginning of the meeting and at the end of the meeting for non-agenda items. The members of the public in attendance at the Board meeting shall be given the opportunity to address the Board on any agenda item only after being recognized by the Chair or acting Chair. All comments, statements or questions will be directed to the Board. Only after being acknowledged by the Board Chair, shall a member of the public initiate their communication. Comments, statements, or questions shall be limited to not more than three (3) minutes for each person addressing the Board. Minutes will not be allowed to be donated to others to increase time limitations. While all comments, statements and questions will be received by the Board it will be at the discretion of the Board or Board Members to respond at that time or to respond at a later time to gather more information. The Board appreciates receiving any written documents, photos, drawings, etc. as part of the participants presentation during the opportunity for public comment electronically in-person or at tdee@skcfire.org.
